

Johnny Perkins must rate pretty good in Missouri; anyway there's where he spends his week ends.

Allene J. seems to receive quite a few letters. Evidently they are from the same guy cause they are always written on pretty green stationery.

I overheard Josephine say she received letters from Champaign quite frequently. I wonder if Duane isn't going to the U. of I.

Blow me down! Wonder what's a matter with Kenneth and Mary. Buddy seems to be taking his place pretty well.

Glenn Query seems to be popular too. I think it's positively ridiculous the way the girls rush to sit beside him on the way to and from school.

Frances Weiklo is pretty rushed from what I over-hear in 1st and 2nd hour clothing class. That seems to be more interesting than what Miss Johnson says.

Annalou seems to be repaying John by stopping out on him at the winner roast.

I've heard several of the girls wonder who is the handsome Romeo Shirley Marlatt was seen with this fall. But you'd be surprised to hear Elva and J.W. had split up. Well, never fear, they haven't-- this is the third year.. Keep up the good work.

I wish you'd tell me why they called Neal "Buckshot" right after the winner roast.

Say, can anybody give me any more information about "Chuck"? From what I've collected he spends the week ends at Scrogg's. Maybe that's why Eleanor won't even look at M.C.H.S. boys..

Well, be good, MCHS'ers, cause don't forget I'm all ears..

Isle of View,
Little Audrey

P.S.--Allene Jones seems in doubt about whom she will choose for her Romeo; J. Spreck, Neal, Cotton, V. Miller, Pete Isaacs, Cox, J.L. Hoffman. All applications appreciated.

Geraldine(at Hi-Tri Camp to Le lying on a straw mattress): "Q kicking up the dust!"

Mr. Boll: "What is the formula water?"

Eileen S.: "HIJKLMNO".

Mr. Boll: "Nonsense!"

Eileen: "You said it was from to O."

Miss Grabb: "Now, do you know what a tutor is?"

Charles R. McGuire: "A car."

Mr. Cox: "Well, son how did y get along in school today?"

Bob Cox: "Dad, my physiology says conversation at meals sh be of a pleasant character. talk about something else."
